From the Golf Course Superintendent:

2019!

The weather has been odd so far this winter. It's making me wonder if we might get an early opportunity for golf!

I know the staff is eager for this season to get started and so am I!

Thanks!

Join me in recruiting new golfers!

From the Golf Professional:

The game of golf is many different things to many different people. One may play golf merely for the social aspects while another seeks solitude or exercise. Certain golfers love the competitive side of the game while others would never even keep score. No matter what the reasons are, each share great passion for the game.

We all know many people that may or may not have played golf before, but certainly would enjoy one of its many facets. My goal for this season is to recruit at least one person and help them find a passion for the game. I am much looking forward to it!!
