

Buffalo Hill Golf Club E-News 11/11/19

From the General Manager:

First, we would like to acknowledge and extend our most sincere thanks to ALL Veterans for their service and sacrifice. Thank you for your service.

Was that wind yesterday the threat of something blowing in? It was so cold with wind chills keeping most "would be" golfers inside. While the time frame shrinks by the day, we still hope to get in a few more rounds on the Cameron 9.

Mike and the crew will be busy this week in an attempt to cover select greens on the Championship 18. Let's hope the wind and the temperatures cooperate!

Season passes are now on sale in the membership office. Please call Tessa at 756-4548 for more information.

Thank you, and have a great week everybody!

"Deep Discounts on Remaining Inventory"

From the Golf Professional:

Grab it while you can! We have a very good selection of name brand, high quality inventory at amazing prices!

See Tessa in the office for assistance as I am out of town until November 17.

Thank you!

"Covering Up"

From the Golf Course Superintendent:

We're still hoping to place covers on select greens. Wind and extreme cold doesn't help, but we'll hang in there and take advantage of the first opportunity!

Thanks,
